

Places to visit for budding historians:

Captain Cook Birthplace Museum (Free Entry)

<https://www.captcook-ne.co.uk/ccbm/>

You might find here interesting when you learn about:

- 'Were the journeys of Captain Cook and Neil Armstrong significant?' in Year 2.

Kirkleatham Museum (Free Entry)

<https://redcarclleveland.co.uk/enjoy/kirkleatham-museum/>

You might find here interesting when you learn about:

- 'Were the Vikings really?' in Year 5.
- 'How have the early civilisations shaped our world today?' in Year 6.

You can also enjoy a virtual 360° tour of the museum -

<https://my.matterport.com/show/?m=YypztsdwWJZ>

Dorman Museum (Free Entry)

<https://www.middlesbrough.gov.uk/leisure-events-libraries-and-hubs/dorman-museum> - more information about events can be found on their Facebook page

You might find here interesting when you learn about:

- 'What impact did WWII have on Teesside?' in Year 6.

Shildon National Railway Museum (Free Entry)

<https://www.locomotion.org.uk/>

You might find here interesting when you learn about:

- ‘How did George Stephenson impact our local area?’ in Year 3

Head of Steam - Darlington Railway Museum

<https://www.head-of-steam.co.uk/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘How did George Stephenson impact our local area?’ in Year 3

Preston Park Museum & Grounds

<https://prestonparkmuseum.co.uk/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘What was life like when our grandparents were children?’ in Year 1
- ‘How did George Stephenson impact our local area?’ in Year 3

Great North Museum (Free Entry)

<https://greatnorthmuseum.org.uk/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘What did Mary Anning do that was so special?’ in Year 1.
- ‘How did life change from the stone age to the iron age?’ in Year 3.
- ‘Why do we know so much about Ancient Egypt?’ in Year 3.
- ‘Were the Greeks really that great?’ in Year

4

- ‘How did the Romans change life in Britain?’ in Year 4.
- ‘How have the early civilisations shaped our world today?’ in Year 6

You can also enjoy virtual tours of different exhibitions in the museum - Virtual tours | Great North Museum: Hancock

Beamish

<https://www.beamish.org.uk/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘How did George Stephenson impact our local area?’ in Year 3

Eden Camp

<https://www.edencamp.co.uk/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘What impact did WWII have on Teesside?’ in Year 6

You can also enjoy a virtual tour -

<https://www.edencamp.co.uk/discover/eden-camp-virtual-tours/>

The Holy Island of Lindisfarne

<https://www.lindisfarne.org.uk/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘Were the Vikings really bad?’ in Year 5

York Dungeons

<https://www.thedungeons.com/york/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘How has crime and punishment changed over time?’ in Year 6

Please check age restrictions before visiting.

Jorvik Viking Centre

<https://www.jorvikvikingcentre.co.uk/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘Were the Vikings really bad?’ in Year 5

Hadrian’s Wall

<https://www.english-heritage.org.uk/visit/places/hadrians-wall/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘What happened when the Romans came to Britain?’ in Year 4

Jarrow Hall

<https://jarrowhall.com/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘Were the Vikings really bad?’ in Year 5

You can also enjoy a virtual tour -

<https://jarrowhall.com/auto-draft/>

Segedunum Roman Fort & Museum

<https://segedunumromanfort.org.uk/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘What happened when the Romans came to Britain?’ in Year 4

Oriental Museum

<https://www.dur.ac.uk/oriental.museum/>

You might find this interesting when you learn about:

- ‘How have the early civilisations shaped our world today?’ in Year 6